

MELTING ICE SOLUTION – MIAMI HEAT

The first grid below shows the straightforward solution to the puzzle. Letters not used in Fragments clues spell the message NOW SLIDE SOME.

Some boxes in the grid can be shifted so that new words are formed in them. These new words answer halves of the three unused clues at the end of the puzzle (“Floors” = AWES, etc.). The second grid shows those boxes in their new positions, and unused letters now spell the answer message, IT’S MIAMI HEAT.
